

Your National Body

www.tams.asn.au

As a member of TAMS, you automatically become a member of the National Works Officers Association (NWOA) which was formed on 15 September 1999 and Incorporated in 2001

The NWOA comprises the following organisations:

- Tasmanian Association of Municipal Supervisors Inc. (www.tams.asn.au)
- Municipal Works Officers Association Victoria Inc. (www.mwoa.com.au)
- Local Government Supervisors Association Western Australia Inc. (www.lgsa.com.au)
- Local Government Supervisors Association NSW (Sydney Metro); and
- Works Officers Association of Queensland Inc.
- South Australian Local Government Supervisory Officers Association – Southern and Hills Branch Inc.

The objectives of the National Works Officers Association are to:

- Promote general advancement of professional skills and education within Local Government;
- Define, establish and maintain the professional competencies and standards necessary in Local Government;
- Promote development, advancement and improvement of skills amongst members whilst providing opportunity for fellowship;
- Provide a range of information services to all state members, including a national newsletter;
- Sponsor an International Study Tour to be undertaken annually by a financial member;
- Ensure national alignment of qualifications through TAFE; and,
- Develop a national syllabus, database and web site.